

Accessibility Statement

The Equity Project (TEP) Charter School is committed to making publicly available information on TEP's website accessible to the widest possible audience, regardless of technology or ability. We are actively working to increase the accessibility and usability of our website, and in doing so, adhere to many of the available standards and guidelines.

To request non-electronic access to any public documents on TEP's website (included translated versions), please visit one of our three campuses or call the main office for support.
